Volume 5

The desire to fly has been a dream of all mankind. . .

since the dawn

of

recorded history.

Our flight through life leads us
into many challenges.
Gateway has prepared us for our first solo flight.

Hot Air Balloon

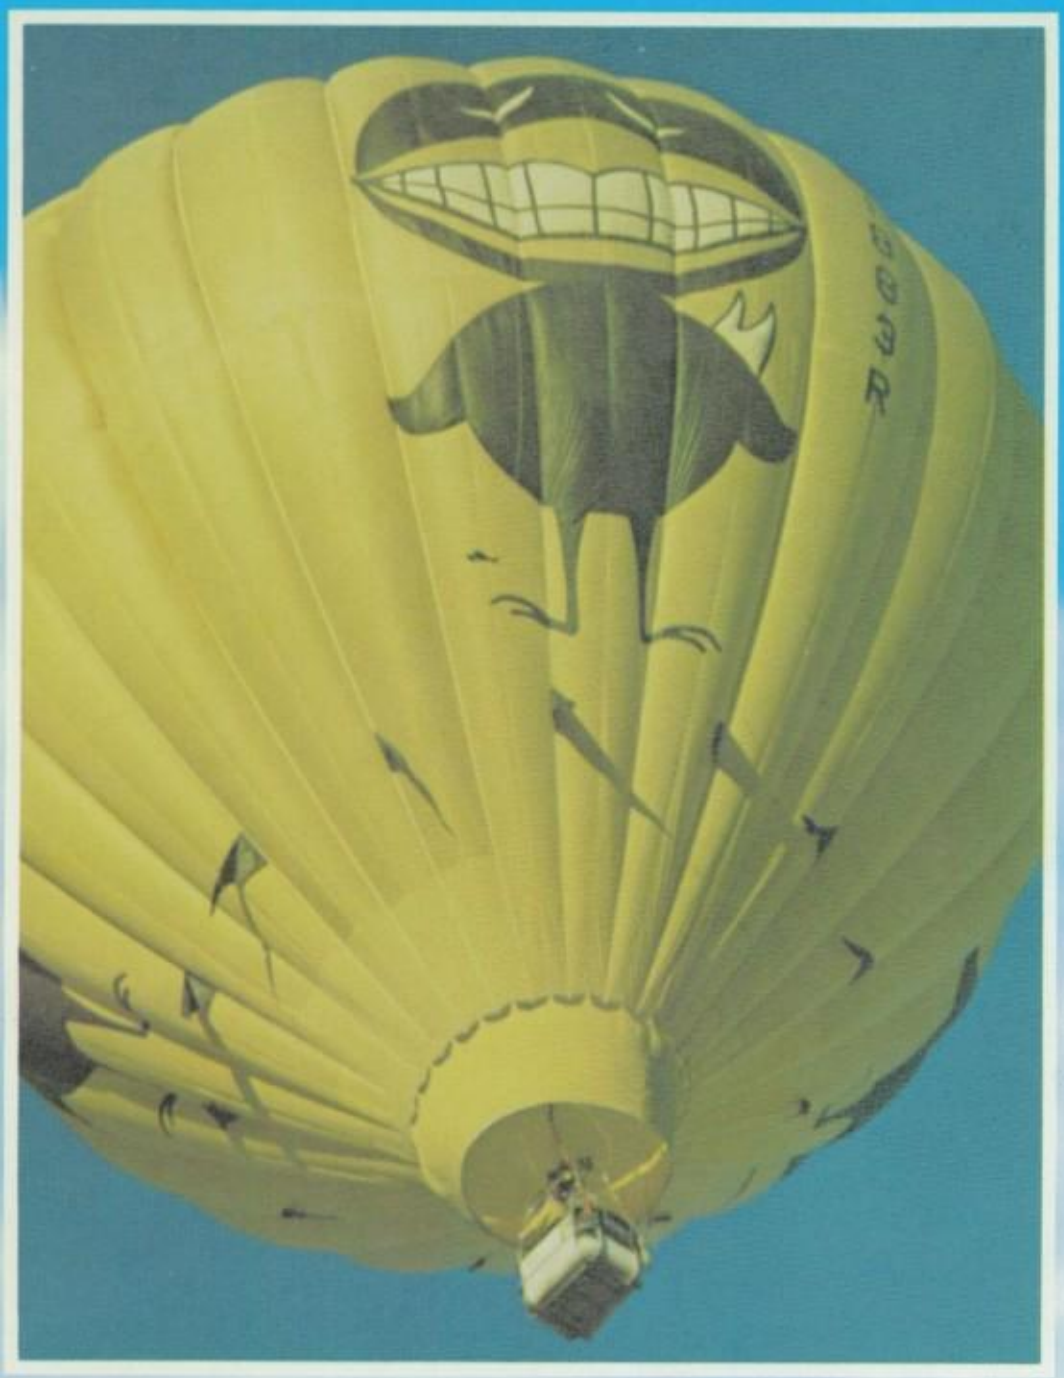
Looking down

Earth is solid, green and brown.

Houses red, yellow, white.

Free to experience flight.



Wicker basket around your knees,

Blue and white is all one sees.

Look up to the bright yellow sun.

Beside a bird, you're the only one.

Spirit Week Spurs Homecoming

"Remember the Times of Your Life," the Homecoming theme for 1977, was highlighted by a week of craziness. Hair Day, Hat Day, T-Shirt Day, and Opposites Day preceded the game Oct. 8. The Best Legs Contest capped the Color Day Pep Assembly and sophomores swept away float honors. After a close loss to Heritage High 20-17, seniors Annette Warren and Kevin Patrick were chosen King and Queen of the Saturday dance. It was a lonely crowning for the queen as King Patrick had broken his arm in the football game the night before.

Media Center Expands Video Facilities

The Media Center is one of the most advanced in the state. Aside from the library and the recently closed-in study area, there are audio-visual, studio, and darkroom areas. Because the school is media oriented, the A.V. area is one of the most widely used in the state. Under the expert direction of Mr. Richard Cole and students in the A.V. class, the video facilities are expanding to accommodate the growing population of Gateway.

This year the Media Center is involved with more classroom work than ever. Teachers have doubled use of videotapes and A.V. equipment in the classroom. Video equipment and slide reproduction facilities are now open to students.

Halloween Dance Lures Spooks

"Hey, ugly!" posters provoked a stellar cast of Star Wars characters from Darth Vader and a jawa to colonial colonels at the Halloween Costume Ball October 28. Sophomore David Main captured first in the contest for scarriest costume. Goblins, ghouls, warlocks, and gypsies boogied to the beat of Waldo White's fantastic disco sounds.

The Miracle Worker A Theatrical Triumph

The Miracle Worker, written by William Gibson, was performed November 3 and 4 by the Gateway High School Drama Department under the direction of Dorwin Peterson. Senior Felicia Villani starred in the lead role as Helen Keller, who learns to talk although blind, deaf, and dumb. Ann Sullivan, Keller's teacher, is played by sophomore Trent Oliver and Mrs. Keller by junior Terri Bickley. Pete Bunch, class of '77, in his first dramatic appearance, played Captain Keller.

A dramatic and technical triumph, the play used a wide array of technical equipment for special effects, including a functioning water pump. Felicia Villani, who has performed professionally outside of school including a role as an extra in the movie "The Disappearance of Sister Aimee", performed superably as the struggling and gifted young Keller. The cast spent three to four hours daily, six nights a week, for a month, rehearsing. Props and scenery were made by the Technical Theatre Class.

The entire cast was as follows:

A Doctor ..... Neil Sheesley
Percy ..... Julian Clay
Martha ..... Michelle Howard
Belle ..... Joy Van Buren
Aunt Ev ..... Shelley Cole
James ..... Tim Drnec
Anagnos ..... Paul Sheesley
Viney ..... Regina Dorsey
Blind Girls ..... Karen Anderson, Babette Cook, Jennifer Cullins, Tricia Landers, Stephanie McMillon, Jeanne McNamee, Cebee Stanbery, Joni Sims, Janet Orleans, Brenda Sloane.
A Servant ..... Carla Arnold
Jimmie's Voice ..... Steve Jacobson
Crone's Voice ..... Debbie Booth, Mary Limes, Janet Nold, Karen Purcell
Man's Voice ..... John Steffen

Christmas Dance Visited By Santa

On Friday, Dec. 16, the Junior Class sponsored the Christmas Dance, a disco performed by Waldo White. It proved to be the most successful dance ever at Gateway up to that time.

The dance, which followed a basketball game against Boulder, was attended by approximately 500 persons, and made around $700 for the Junior Class. The money was used to defray the costs of the Junior-Senior Prom, held later in the year at the Brown Palace Hotel.

'A Story Theatre'' Updates Ancient Tales

On December 9 and 10, the GHS Drama Department presented the play "A Story Theatre", which was directed by Mr. Dorwin Peterson.

"A Story Theatre" consisted of fourteen improvised skits taken from the ancient tales of Grimm, Anderson, and Aesop. The cast and crew members adapted the skits and brought them into today's humor and perspective.

Some of the stories included in the play were: "The Wolf and the Seven Little Kids" (in which a four-man wolf "ate" the seven kids), "Rapunzel," "The One-eyed Doe" (with Paula Wright dancing the part of the graceful doe), and "The Leaping Match."

Cast members included: Angela Burry, Mark Dissette, Kurk Edwards, Bob Niemi, Trent Oliver, Karen Phillips, Brad Shackelford, Cebee Stanberry, Felicia Villani, Paula Wright, Bruce Yates, and Bryce Yates.

Commons, Gateway's Focal Point.

Think back, for a moment to the one high school experience which you shared with every other student at Gateway, the Commons.

The law of the jungle was supreme there during fifth hour lunches. Survival of the fittest prevailed.

Eating lunch, your chair slipped too far backwards and you fell back into the lower level and landed with your hair in the football's captain's burrito.

The Commons was also home of the ever-popular lunchtime concerts by the intermediate string orchestra and bell ensemble, which always played the waltz version of "Boogie Nights."

Although the Commons was really divided into an upper and lower part, the upper was closed off to students because it always looked like it was either a gymnasium or a research lab.

The Commons became home of the Homecoming Disco, too, that yearly lesson in semi-formal getting-on-down.

It became a spot for informal meetings for students who were not in class, for one reason or another.

It was the lurking place for the lonely, meeting place for the loving, and, even, an occasional hot spot for a good talk.

Eight Graduate At Mid-Term

Despite a major snowstorm January 23, eight Gateway High School students graduated in mid-term ceremonies in the GHS Commons Area. Forty-five students from the entire district participated in the ceremony.

The midterm graduates were: Cheryl Ann Belschner, Pamela Bussell, Charles Chittum, Richard Davis, Annette Haip, Geraldine Higgins, Charla Lindamood, Laurie McAtee, Renate Rebhan, and Janice Summers. The reception was held by the upper commons. Hinkley, Central, and Aurora Adult Evening, high school students also graduated.

Mr. Gary Capra's Gateway High School Orchestra played the processional and the receptional. Dr. Richard Sharkey presented the classes, and Cheryl Ann Belschner gave the benediction.

Weddings Highlight Sadie Hawkins Dance

The Sadie Hawkins Dance held February 18 in the Commons proved that girls are not that shy when it comes to asking males to dance.

Dressed as Daisy Maes and L'il Abners, students danced to the music of Dick Schultz and his Disco Machine. Many couples decided to tie the knot at a marriage booth in one of the largest dance turnouts of the year.

Student Government sponsored the dance and Dave Von Drehle, president, served as preacher of the night, issuing marriage certificates and rings.

Winter Carnival a Money-Maker

Winter Carnival, held February 11 in the ateway Commons, was a whopping financial ccess, netting over $900—$300 more than as earned during the two years previous rnivals.

Twenty-one Gateway clubs set up booths nging from a balloon shave to a clown pick cket. The biggest attraction was the Drama ub's marriage booth, where instant remonies were performed. The Spanish ub's piñata sale and fish toss and the ational Honor Society's shooting galley and wl-a-ball were the most successful money akers. The Cheerleaders orbit art and dart lloon booths followed closely in earnings.

Student Government annually sponsors e winter event as a fund raising activity for e various clubs to which the entire Aurora mmunity is invited.

Bye Bye Birdie Spoofs Rock Star

The death of Elvis Presley and the opportunity for a rge cast led to the selection of BYE BYE BIRDIE as ateway's spring musical production March 3, 4, 10 and .. Mr. Dorwin Peterson directed.

The play was highlighted by a dinner theatre March and the choreography of Denver professional dancers ichard Denny and Darlene Garlutzo. Special effects cluded rock star Birdie entering the stage on a otorcycle.

Senior Felicia Villani captured the role of Rose lvarez, senior Brad Shackleford the role of Conrad Birdie nd junior Robert Niemi the role of Albert Peterson.

BYE BYE BIRDIE is about the selling of a rock star the 1950's. Music agent Albert Peterson, convinced his reer is over when his only client, Conrad Birdie, is about be drafted, is talked into a promotion of the star by his cretary Rose Alvarez. She promises she will make "Mr. rdie the hottest soldier since Joan of Arc," by having rdie give a farewell kiss to one girl picked at random and leasing a song entitled "One Last Kiss."

Junior Jenny Pratt plays the part of the girl who is osen to receive Conrad's last kiss.

The cast spent 4 weeks rehearsing for 5 hours daily, cluding Saturdays.

Varsity Has Ups And Downs; J.V. Tops All

The Varsity Football Team, under the guidance of coach Stan ursley, struggled through a rollercoaster season filled with ups and owns, finishing with 5 wins, 5 losses.

The team, led by Co-captains Bryan Milegar and Tom emmelbeck, started off on the right foot with a win over Denver orth, 14-0. However, the season also included losses to Central, eritage, Smoky Hill, Cherry Creek, and Fairview.

The season's high point came when Gateway traveled to Boulder igh School and won in a shut-out, 17-0.

Some of the Olympian players had an outstanding year. Bryan ilegar was superb at fullback, Jerry Rouselle was all-league at nose uard, and Brian Crook at tackle, Mike DeVol at guard, and Kevin cCaskey at linebacker; they composed the all-league, second team.

The real star of the team, however, was junior Jeff Guy, who ewrote the Centennial League record book with his punts and field oals. His punting average went as high as 47 yards before settling round 43, and his 55 yard field goal against Cherry Creek was a entennial League record.

The high point of football at Gateway came from the Junior arsity Team, who finished their season undefeated against tough ompetition.

The team, coached by Mr. John Pounder, outscored its ompetition by a total of 118 to 14, shutting-out all but two of their pponents.

Obviously, the team's strong point was their defense, although unior Quarterback Ernie Large did a good job of leading the offense.

The J.V. gridders finished 6-0.

Soph Gridders Sport Second Half Blues

The sophomores had a dismal season on the ootball field, finishing their season with only one vin, balanced against 5 losses and a tie.

In many games, the team was able to stay head of or tied with their opposition for the first alf of their games, but let-downs in second half ed to the many disappointments.

The team, according to Coach Chuck Mills, had a lack of intensity and team work, which nakes it difficult to do well."

Roger The Dodger Points The Way For Frosh

The freshmen had a good football year, finishing their season one up in the win column. Of their four wins, one came over league power Cheery Creek, and two others came against rivals Hinkley and Central.

The star of the team was definitely Roger Howard, who scored five times in the year, including a pair of touchdowns against Cherry Creek, and an 85 yard interception return against Douglas Country.

The team was coached by Mr. Justin Fay, who said of the team, "The defense was just great, and they sure led us to the solid season we had."

Tough Sophs Lead Soccer

The Gateway Boy's Soccer Team arned their best season ever this year posting a 5-7-1 record against very iff competition.

The team, coached by Mr. Jim lorgan, was able to defeat rivals moky Hill and Central, along with nglewood, Littleton and Douglas ounty.

On the field, leadership came from phomores Chris Dilling and John allon, both of whom were selected to e All-League team. Other outstanding erformances came from soph Steve aul, and juniors Grea Rea and Scott ullock.

Golfers Try Hard

Inexperience threw a monkeywrench into the workings of this year's golf team.

Only one of the golfers had ever played in any varsity matches before the season opened. However, under the leadership of Coach Sam Landrum, the team managed to down three of the teams in the Centennial League, finishing the season 9th out of 12 teams.

The stalwarts of the team were juniors Brian Donahue and Dave Pfannenstiel. Donahue barely missed qualifying for the state championships.

Young Mermaids Qualify Four For State

With four girls going to state ompetition this year, the Gateway irls' Swim Team is on its way up.

Freshman Colleen DeMoney ompeted in the State 400 Free elay and 50 Free Style; freshman athy Flaherty in 400 Free Relay; enior Debbie Kootz in 400 Free elay; and sophomore Lori Miller in 00 Free Relay and 400 Free Relay.

Overall, the team, coached by Irs. Ingrid Lindemann, improved is year. With the exception of one vent, the butterfly, all of the school ecords were broken.

Two thirds of this year's team as freshmen, who show promise r the coming year.

The girls' eighth place finish in ague competition was due largely the composition of the team, and ecause, according to Mrs. Lin-emann, the Centennial League is ne of the toughest in the state. ateway looked better in state ompetition because all teams were ompeted against, not just the ague.

Boys' Tennis Team Improves

Led by coach Terry Simmons, the Gateway Boys' Tennis Team finished its 1977 season with a 2-10 record and placed seventh in the district.

"For the experience and youth on the team, I felt that we were extremely competitive, and played well," commented Simmons.

Senior John Thurnau and sophomore Mark Brading made district finals. The team's outstanding victory was against Hinkley, in which Hinkley had been favored.

Below Christi Neary performs on an uneven parallel.

Coached by Ms. Rhonda Horner, the Gateway Girls Gymnastics team had only two returning lettermen this year. Composed largely of freshmen, the team did very well for such a young team.

Until the end of the season, the team did not have enough girls to have competitors in all four gymnastic events, which greatly disadvantaged the team. Gateway finished ninth out of eleven teams in league competition, and fifth out of eleven in the district qualifying competition.

The high point gymnast this year was freshman Christi Ransford, who qualified for state in all-around competition and on the uneven parallel bars.

Senior Vernon Iwancin and sophomore Dave Diaz highlighted Gateway's cross country season by sweeping first and twentieth respectively in the three mile National AAU Junior Olympics Cross Country Championship in Longview, Washington December 9.

Under the direction of coach Steve Dertinger, the team placed first in the Centennial League championship out of 12 teams and took first in the John F. Kennedy Invitational out of seven teams.

Sweeping first in the Aurora City Championship and placing in all meets except two, the team made great strides over last year.

Out of a team of 24, senior Janna Balint was the only female.

Gal Spikers Second In League, 7-4

With two girls selected for all-league this year, the Gateway Girls Volleyball team had a much better season than expected, according to coach James Cutshall. Senior Peggy Houlihan was selected for second team all-league and senior Julie DiStefano for honorable mention all-league.

The team's basic weakness this year was their lack of a good offense and spikers. The team had an excellent defense however, and did surprisingly well according to Mr. Cutshall.

Sophomore Misty Brennenstuhl shows a lot of promise for the upcoming years, as does the rest of the team. She proved herself as an excellent spiker and all-around player and will help out the team greatly in the future.

Soph Leads Boys' Swim Team To State

The boys' swimming team is: sitting, Mike Awn, Shaun Ramirez, Darren Hesse, Mark Zwiers, Mark Thew, Tony Ashmore, Greg Moore, Dexter Schweer, Doug Mohr, Jim Rusho; standing, Jim Patterson, Don Smith, Gus Lindemann, Ralph Fehlberg, David Baldwin, Chris Sargent, Steve Savig, Chris Huskey, Cliff Boone, Brad Bombardierre, Bruce Woeller, Kevin Revels, David Murphy, John Leibrandt, Coach Ray Payne, Manager Ann Belschner, Coach Bill Ripp, and Debbie Kootz. Not pictured: Rhea Beard and Jeff Kruger.

Under the guidance of coach Ray Payne, the boys' swimming team completed its finest season.

The team lost few meets on their way to a season in which they qualified numerous swimmers for the state meet and broke many school records.

Sophomore Gus Lindemann was the fastest Oly in the water, setting Gateway records in both the 200 and 500 yard freestyles. Lindemann also qualified for the state meet in the 400 yard freestyle and medley relays.

Darin Hesse set school records in diving while compiling a fine season.

Other state qualifiers included Jeff Kruger in the 50 and 100 yard freestyles and the 100 back stroke; Rhea Beard in the 50 freestyle and the 100 butterfly, and Shaun Ramirez, Make Awn, and Mark Thew in assorted relays.

Payne was pleased by the season overall. A loss in what he called the "match of the year," against Heritage, was one of the few bleak moments.

The team did win the tough Denver Public Schools Relays.

State qualifiers are top, Darren Hess, Mark Thew, Jeff Kruger, and Rhea Beard; bottom: Mike Awn, Shaun Ramirez, Gus Lindemann.

Varsity Cagers Suffer Setbacks

The varsity boys' basketball team rode a llercoaster season in 1977-78.

The opening of the season was marred by lingering injury suffered by star center evin Patrick as he was quarterbacking the otball team. His broken arm failed to heal til after the Christmas break, and the 6'7" nior seemed unable to hit his stride before e season ended.

The Olys began their season against the iffest opposition of any team in Colorado, ealizing that each of their first four pponents were undefeated and ranked in the p 15 in the state.

When it was discovered three weeks after ne end of the second quarter that guard rnold Campbell was ineligible, two wins had be forfeited in which he had played.

The season, which ended in a 5-11 record, id have its bright spots.

Forwards Jim Buckley and Gary oudreau emerged as the offensive stalwarts the team. Although Boudreau had one 38 oint weekend as well as a 29 point game, uckley earned his team captain spot by being ne team's most consistent player.

Guard Kevin Moore had a solid season, nd Jeff Guy provided some exciting moments.

If the junior varsity boys' basketball team had to be dragged onto the bus to travel to their away games, it would be understandable.

The team seemed unable to win away and unable to lose at home. They finished the year 8-8 — eight wins at home and eight losses away.

Freshman Neal Patrick jumped to a blazing start, rising to the challenge of playing up two levels to be the J.V.'s most consistent player. However, Patrick injured his leg at mid-season and was out for the last part of the year.

Another bright hope for the teams of the future was center Mike Hines, who controlled rebounding in most of the season's contests.

In fact, there were few weak spots on the team which boasted good play at times from Steve Seabrook, Pat Lynch, Mark Millard, Tony Blanks, Mike Conner, and Tom Pryor.

The team was inconsistent, however. Coach Pete Mindock described them as "hot and cold."

Piner, Dorsey Lead Sophs To 500 Season

Gateway's boys' sophomore basketball team finished their season with an even 5-5 record against stiff Centennial League competition.

Led by outstanding players Cameron Piner and Rod Dorsey, the team was even for most of the season.

Coach Jim Cutshall was impressed by his players' intensity. Early in the season he evaluated his team: "They are a good group of kids loaded with hustle."

Additional strong play came from Mike Harris, who led the team in rebounding. Bill Stef had several good games as well.

The team ended the season at the Cherry Creek Sophomore Tournament, finishing second in the consolation bracket.

Frosh Cagers Score Lone Win

The freshman boys' basketball team had to settle for a lone win in their long 1977-78 season.

The win, a 36-17 defensive battle over Douglas County, came in the final game of the season. It provided a happy ending for an otherwise heartbreaking year.

Under the tutelage of coach Bill Ott, the frosh suffered from losing their finest player, Neal Patrick, who moved up to the junior varsity.

The freshman finished the year looking forward to an improved season next year.

Freshman B team basketball players are Ken Brink, Larry Nocerino, Todd Myers, Tim Myers, Dave Burch, Bob Moore, Scott Gunter, Jim Fross, Kyle Keller, Scott Kimble, Greg Norberg, Phil Smith.

The girls' basketball team under rookie coach Barbara Curtis had an inconsistent season, scoring overall 2-14.

Suffering from lack of experience and size, the girls lost their toughest game against Hinkley in January 35-56. Although they lost to Boulder, coach Curtis felt they played their finest in that game.

The team's stalwart was senior Peggy Houlihan, who served as a definite team leader in both victory and defeat.

Other leadership came from Janet Davis, Janna Balint and Vicky Walker.

Soph Grappler Goes To State

Varsity team wrestlers are bottom, Al Hodges, Mike Martinez, John Mallon, Chris Dilling, Alex Canono; top, Stan Brooks, Bob Andrews, Al Sewick, Mike DeVol, Jim Rouse, and Bobby Bryant, manager.

Although a varsity team, the grapplers ere led by their only state qualifier, ophomore Alex Canono. Canono was defeated the first round of state competition.

Coached by Ron England, the Olys' restling team had a tough time getting on he winning track, waiting until their eighth natch to pick up their first win.

The most solid performer on the team was enior Mike DeVol, who compiled an mpressive record during the season, but was nable to get into the state meet.

Alan Sewick also provided strong erformances in some meets.

Coach England looks forward to next eason when the wrestlers will boast returning arsity stars Allen Hodges, Alex Canono, and Mike Martinez.

Future Business Leaders Of America Train For Occupations

FBLA President Kristina Gilmore brushes up on her typing.

With the largest membership in Gateway's history, the 46 Future Business Leaders of America worked to provide additional business and office education opportunities. First year sponsor was Ms. Rose Maruyama. Officers were President Kristina Gilmore, Vice President Nancy Giles, Secretary Cheryl Teasdale, Treasurer Mary Jane Ellis, Reporter Debbie Blackman, and Parliamentarian Mark Jessop.

The group participated in the March of Dimes Fantasy Zoo in the Aurora Mall and made Christmas decorations for the patrons of Camelia Care Center. Fund raising consisted of selling candy canes at Christmas and weekly doughnut sales. The big event for which FBLA worked was the District competition held at Thornton High School. Members competed in General Business, shorthand, accounting, job interview, and many other categories. Top winners then attended State competition held in Colorado Springs.

Student Government Plays

With an active membership of 35 students Gateway Student Government was able to accomplish a great deal for the school and the surrounding community. They began the year with a faculty breakfast held in the Commons. At registration they provided the discouraged, worn-out students with refreshments. A "Penny-a-Vote" fundraiser for Multiple Sclerosis was sponsored and got Brian Mileger elected to a city-wide, all-star football team. In honor of the Broncos they sold Super Bowl-ders.

In January government sponsored a Sweetheart Dance held at the Paul Beck Center and in February had a Sadie Hawkins Disco. On January 31 they attended a Youth Conference at the Paul Beck Center where older Americans met to talk with students.

An open forum was held in the Commons for discussion between students and officials. Beautiful new greenery was purchased to brighten the Commons, compliments of Student Government. Members of government went on a retreat devoted to improvement of leadership and problem solving skills. At the end of the year they sponsored "We Love You Gateway" week.

Student Government officers were President Dave Von Drehle, Vice President Doug Gibbens, Chair Person Rachel Henning, Secretary Pepper Sullivan, and Treasurer Michelle Howard.

FCA Club Studies Bible

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes met once a week. The group had bible studies and discussed the effect of Christ on their athletic life. The meetings were conducted by different members each week and everyone took an active part in the meetings. The club was endorsed by such professional athletes as Steve Foley, Barney Chavoys, and Jack Dolbin. This spring, the club held a 24 hour runathon to raise money. Officers were Tom Semmelbeck, president; Alan Hodges, vice-president; Janice Craze, secretary; and Brian Crook, treasurer.

Varsity Club Promotes Athletics

Gateway's largest club, the Varsity Club, had 80 members. Any student who earned a varsity letter was eligible for membership. Running the concession stand at games and selling projects funded a spectacular banquet at the end of the year. Extra funds went to finance sports equipment. Sponsor Stan Pursley stated that the larger membership brought more participation to this group.

Seniors Prepare For Solo Flight

"Stop! It tickles." Lori Glen and Amy Saiontz

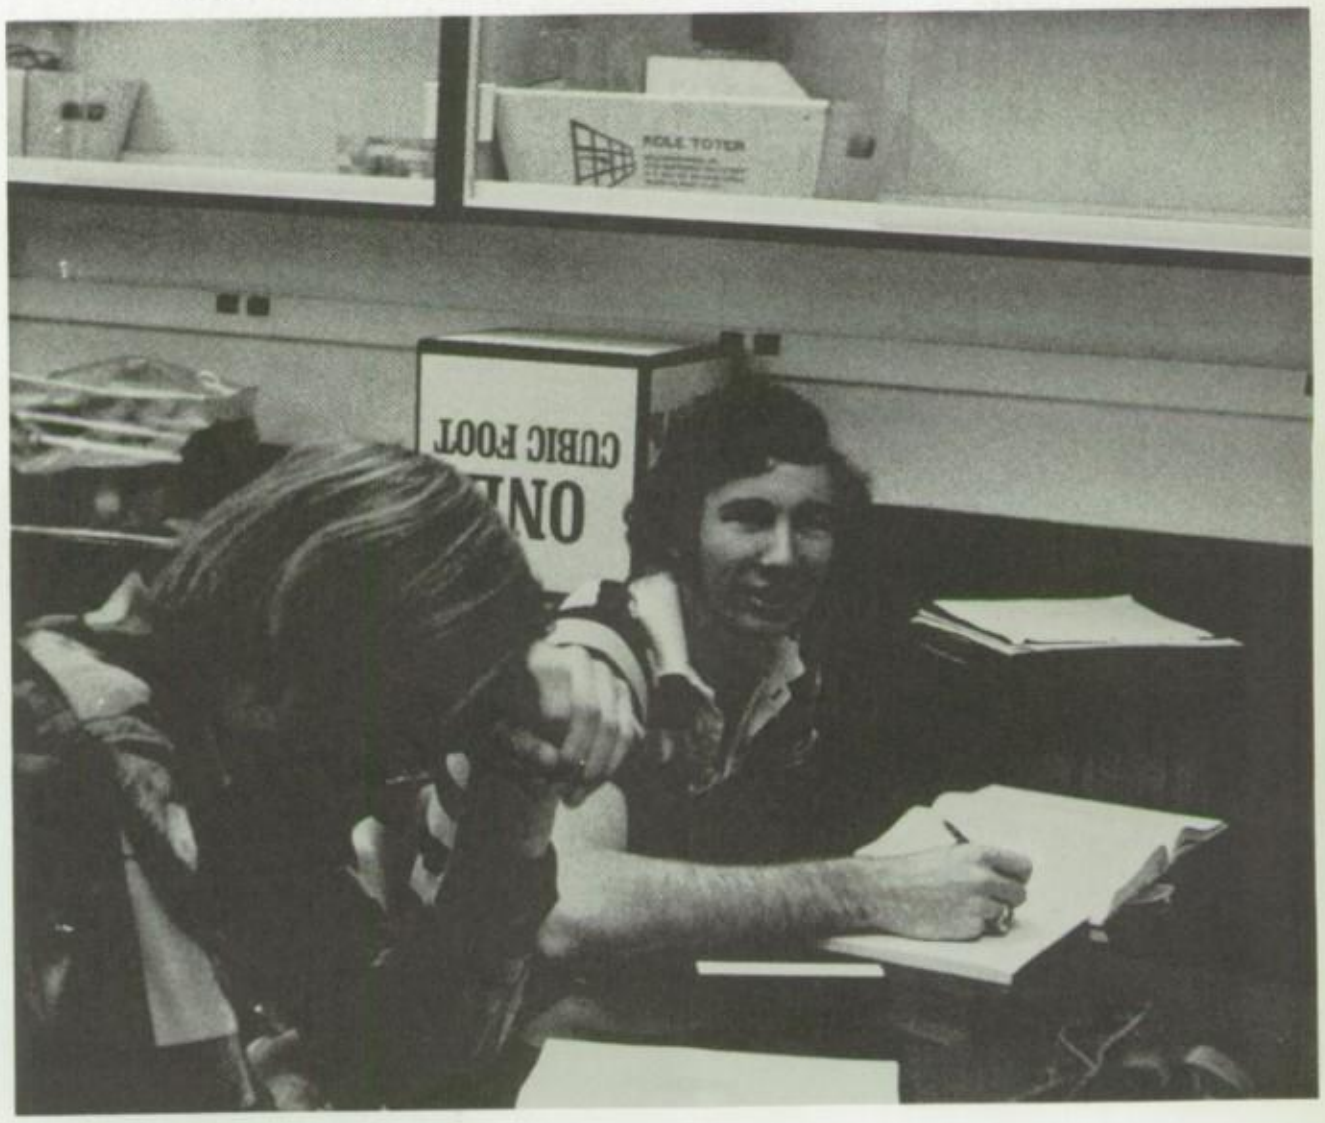
On September 2, 1974 we entered the alls of Gateway leaving behind various junior ighs to test our wings as high school students. lan Sewick and Tina Norris became the first oyalty of the class of 1978. The football team nded the opening season with a fine 6-3 ecord. The officers Linda Moore, Janet avis, Cindy Beckman, and Shari Richardson ead the class through that first tough year.

Gaining confidence as sophomores, the ootball team had an excellent 6-2 season. elicia Villani and Michelle Howard showed romising talent in the hit show, "Godspell." nder the direction of Carol Clavien, Cindy eckman, Beth Thompson, and Michelle oward, we began to soar.

We dove into our junior year with officers lark Albin, Mark Ronzio, Terri Lindsay, and nnette Warren leading fund raising ctivities to finance a spectacular prom at the rown Palace Hotel. Many of our fine athletes layed on Varsity or Junior Varsity football.

Our final year, under the leadership of lark Jessop, Terri Lindsay, Debbie Kootz, nd Ann Buck was highlighted by senior week, rom, and graduation.

With training coming to a close we repared to take our solo flight into the big vorld.



"Physics is a breeze, he's just dumb." Dennis Keefer and Ken Byrd.

Annette Warren is crowned Homecoming Queen for 1977.

Homecoming King, Kevin Patrick

King and Queen together at last.

Kevin Patrick, chosen as Homecoming King spent a lonely night at home while the other royalty was being crowned. Injured at the football game the night before, Kevin suffered a broken arm. Annette Warren, Queen, was excited about her crowning and was sorry that Kevin could not be at the dance, also.

Senior Class Officers

The senior class, sponsored by Ms Sonja Pohlman, Mr. Tom Giblett, Ms Jewell Rissler, and Ms Joyce Carter, began the final year of their journey with enthusiasm. Under the capable leadership of Mark Jessop, President, Terri Lindsay, Vice President, Debbie Kootz, Secretary, and Ann Buck, Treasurer, the class began by co-sponsoring homecoming week. Among the activities seniors participated in were selling colorful Gateway balloons, Winter Carnival, senior week, and, of course, graduation.

Donna Dusang, Annette Warren, and Lisa Jaques were nominated to the Association of Distinguished Young Americans.

Outstanding Seniors of 1978

The following outstanding seniors of 1978 were chosen by teacher nomination. Many seniors were nominated and deserve recognition. However, due to space the following top twelve nominees were selected.

Calm amidst the chaos of yearbook production, Nancy Giles demonstrated her leadership abilities as editor-in-chief of the 1978 Olympiad. With an inexperienced staff and new sponsor, Nancy, also a novice on the staff, coordinated photography, writing and layout assignments documenting the 1977-78 school year at Gateway.

Vice-president of Future Business Leaders of America and a member of National Honor Society, Nancy also held down a job after school with the Aurora Public Schools Federal Credit Union and managed to maintain a 3.76 grade point average.

Both this year and last Nancy served on the High School Textbook Evaluation Committee for the Aurora Public Schools. The group, composed of volunteer parents, teachers, and students, evaluated books for use in the Aurora School System.

Being nominated to National Honor Society has been Nancy's most rewarding experience at Gateway, and competing for Future Business Leaders of America her most enjoyable. Last year she won a Superior Award in the Business Olympics competition in the shorthand category. In her junior year Nancy served as captain of the Drill Team and joined Mu Alpha Theta. As a sophomore she volunteered services at Aurora Community Hospital and attended the Civitan Youth Seminar, a citizenship, service organization.

Piano, guitar, roller skating, and swimming fill Nancy's pastime.

Her future plans include working several years before college.

Diane Benson has been a leader in many areas at Gateway. A member of Concert Band, Marching Band, Pep Band, and Band Council, Diane enjoys music. Her favorite class - foreign languages-led her to be a member and senior vice-president of German Club and a member of Latin Club.

Other organizations Diane belonged to were Mu Alpha Theta(vice-president, senior), Student Government, National Honor Society, Future Business Leaders of America, Ski Club, and her most enjoyable, Bowling Club, of which she was secretary.

Diane served as a junior escort. She was manager of both the boys' and girls' swim teams as a senior.

Along with being of member of so many organizations at Gateway, Diane participated in the Veterinary Exploring Post where she served as president.

Sports, especially bowling and skiing and reading are activities Diane enjoys outside of school. Diane plans to attend college and major in veterinary medicine or foreign languages.

Michelle Howard, an active Olympian, enjoyed most her part in Gateway's production of "Godspell." She also showed her talent in "Hello Dolly," "You're a Good Man Charlie Brown," "Oklahoma," "David and Lisa," "The Miracle Worker," and "A Story Theatre." Along with performing, Michelle sold tickets, designed costumes, and choreographed.

A four year member of Student Government, Michelle served as treasurer in her senior year. She was also a member of Speech Club, Spanish Club, Mu Alpha Theta, Quill & Scroll, and National Honor Society, where she served as treasurer.

In her freshman year Michelle played basketball and lettered in gymnastics. She served as treasurer of the sophomore class. As a junior she was a reporter for the Medallion to which she became feature editor as a senior. Michelle feels that working on the paper was her most rewarding experience at Gateway.

Michelle's awards include the Meritorious Service Award in Journalism from the University of Colorado School of Journalism, Outstanding Achievement Award from the Masons of Aurora, and a nomination to Who's Who among American High School Students. Her most outstanding achievement, she feels, was being a delegate at Girls' State.

Michelle participated in the Colorado School of Mines Science Program for Minorities and in the National Honors Science Program at the University of Colorado. She was one of five Colorado semi-finalists for National Merit Scholarships for Outstanding Negro Students.

Ms. Howard served as a member of the School Board Committee for Advanced Placement programs in the Aurora school system. Her favorite subjects were journalism and math. An eleven year Girl Scout, Michelle plans to study computer science or electrical engineering.

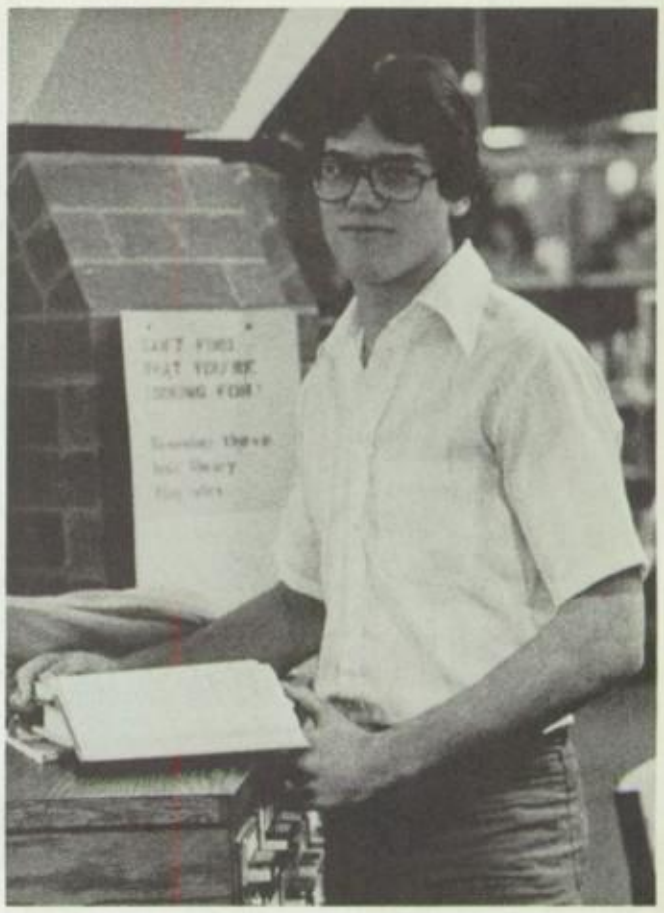
Mark Jessop, a leading figure at Gateway, was an active member of student government. Feeling most rewarded by his participation in government, he served as vice-president of the group in his sophomore year and went on to become senior class president. He was also a four year member of Centennial League Student Government, of which he was president as a junior.

Other outstanding activities Mark participated in were the Youth Advisory Council for the City of Aurora, Student Day in government as mayor pro-tem and Youth Advisor to the Denver area Superintendents Council Conference. He participated in the Metro Denver Conference on Drugs and Alcohol, the Teen Action Program for the March of Dimes, the National Student Leadership Camp, and the State Student Council Conference. Mark was also on the Accountability Committee to the Board of Education.

A member of the Future Business Leaders of America, Mark served as parlimentarian and participated in district and state competition in the category of General Business.

Mark was a freshman football manager, a sophomore volleyball manager, and basketball manager all four years.

He enjoys playing soccer and skiing. College, preferably the University of Colorado, is Mark's future plan.



Brian Mileger, one of Gateway's most outstanding athletes, has showed his talents in football, basketball and track. He received an honorable mention in Centennial League for his fine performance.

Brian feels his most rewarding experience at Gateway was being selected sixth in the state to represent Gateway for Multiple Sclerosis.

A four year member of Varsity Club, Brian also attended Young Life, a religious group.

Outside of school Brian enjoys skiing and motorcycling. He runs his own part-time business sharpening skis.

Hoping to receive a football scholarship, Brian plans to attend ACU in Texas.

Debbie Kootz, outstanding in many ways, spread her talents throughout Gateway. She was Drum Major in her junior and senior years and feels this was her most rewarding experience. She played in the orchestra at the presentation of "Oklahoma," was a member of Centennial League Band, Concert Band, Marching Band and served as president on the Band Council.

Debbie enjoyed swimming the most of all her activities. She both lettered and qualified for State the last two years. She was swim team captain in her senior year.

Other leadership positions Debbie held were senior class secretary, National Honor Society secretary, and German Club vice-president. She was a four year active member of student government.

Debbie served as boys' swim team manager in her senior year and was on the tennis team. She was also a participant on It's Academic, a competitive high school debate program.

Along with school activities Debbie was a Job's Daughter and enjoys skiing, both water and snow.

Debbie's future plans are to attend the Colorado Schools of Mines and study engineering.

Awarded the Outstanding Junior Achievement Award for Gateway by the two Masonic Lodges in Aurora, Kevin Moore has proved an outstanding senior. He was also selected for Who's Who Among American High School Students and for the Denver Post Outstanding Student Program.

Kevin was a member of Mu Alpha Theta, Photography Club, Science Club, and National Honor Society, of which he was vice-president in his senior year.

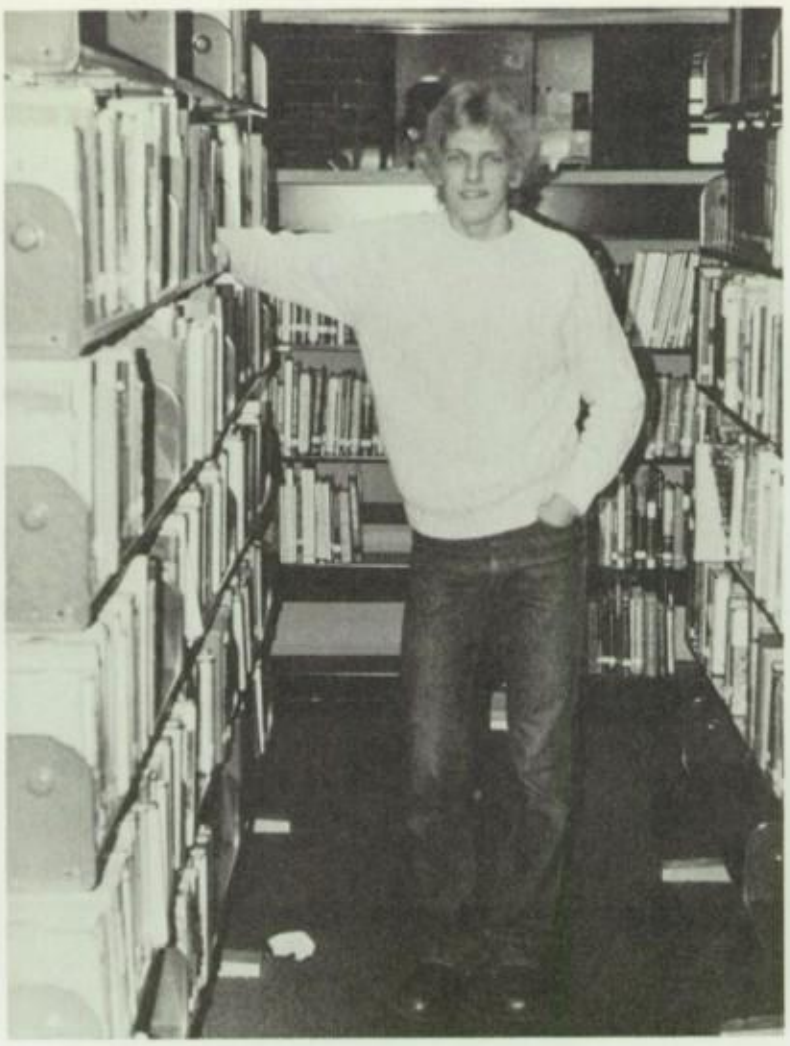
Lettering in cross country, varsity basketball, and varsity track, Kevin set a Gateway record in the 120 yard high hurdles of 15.57 seconds.

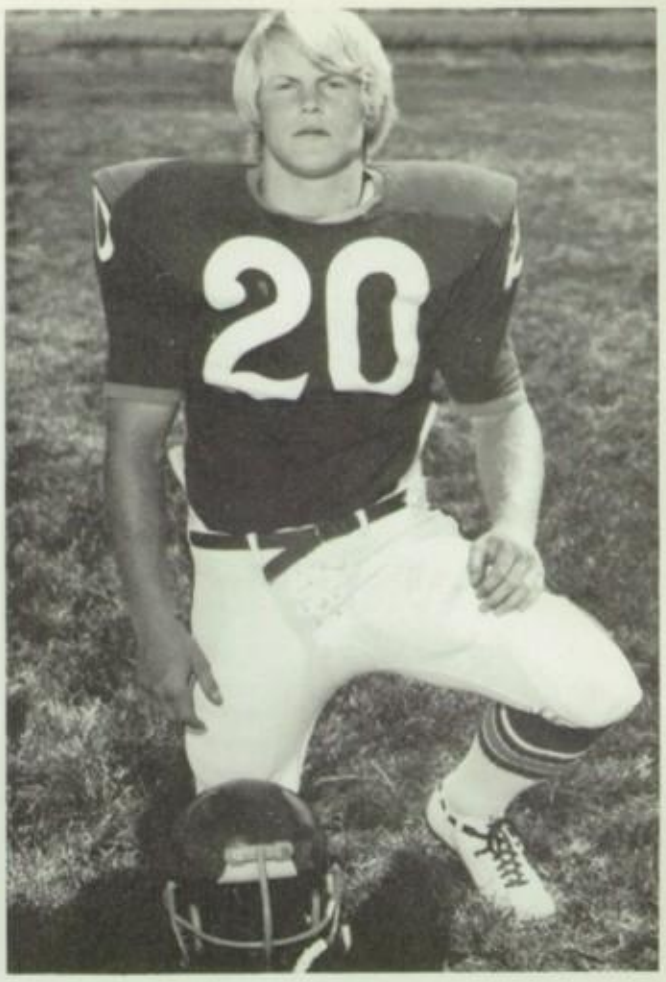
Kevin attended the National Honors Institute of Engineering at the University of Colorado in August, 1977. He was also a delegate to Boys State and a junior escort.

Kevin's favorite subjects were math and English. He enjoyed Gateway for the friends he made. Kevin feels "a good environment for study allows one to excell academically."

Fishing and astronomy are a few of Kevin's hobbies.

He plans to attend college and study engineering.





Tom Semmelbeck has been one of Gateway's most outstanding sportsmen. He was a member of both the football and track teams during his four years at Gateway. Tom enjoys athletics not just as sports but to keep in shape.

History, English and business, especially accounting and business law were Tom's favorite subjects.

Tom was a member and president of Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

In his spare time he enjoys many sports and plays a lot of racketball.

Hoping for a sports scholarship, Tom plans to attend college and study to be a lawyer.

Susan Parkhurst has been an outstanding Olympian. She was a member and senior president of National Honor Society, a member of Mu Alpha Theta for three years, where she served as historian and president, a member of French Club, and a member of the Amateur Radio Club holding a novice license. Sue was also a member of Marching Band and Pep Band. She received a nomination to Who's Who Among American High School Students in her junior year. Her favorite subjects were math and science.

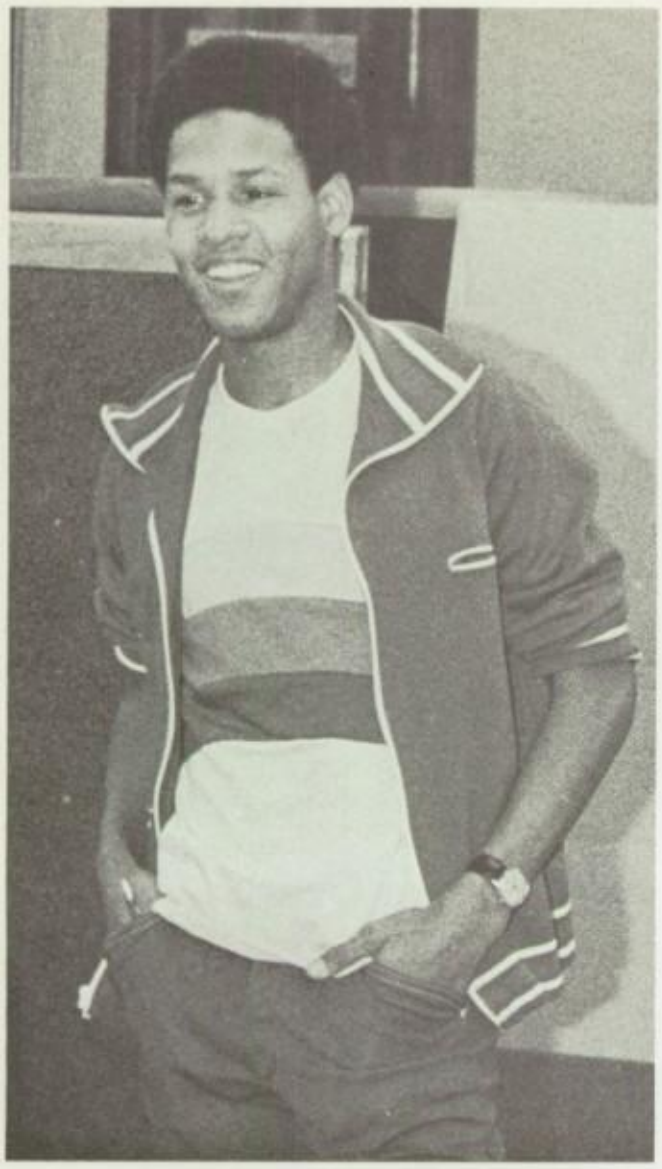
Aside from school involvement, Sue belongs to the Catholic Youth Organization, and volunteered as a candy striper. She has been president and vice-president of two medical Exploring Posts. She has attended a First Aid Multi-media Course, and Close-up, a week long study of government in Washington, D.C. in 1976.

Sue participated in a Republican caucus before the 1976 Presidential election and was a two year participant in the Foreign Language Festival, where she received prizes for cakes, costumes, paintings and dialogue.

Other special activities Sue took part in were the American Association for the Advancement of Science, and a seminar on advanced biology and biological research at Ball State University in Muncie, Indiana.

She was an alternate for Girls' State and the National Science Foundation Student Science Training Program.

Future plans for Sue are to attend college and study medicine.



Alan Temple, an artistic and athletic individual, took pride in his studies to maintain a 3.9 grade point average.

Alan most enjoyed playing soccer at Gateway, and also played baseball. He lettered in both sports.

Organizations Alan was a member of were Mu Alpha Theta, Science Club, and National Honor Society. His favorite classes were art and American history.

Alan's hobbies include drawing, designing and constructing models of airplanes. He also plays tennis.

Alan plays church basketball and belonged to the Explorers post on architecture.

The Air Force Academy or the University of Colorado are Alan's choices for college.

Quiet, feminine Annette Warren contributed to many facets of Gateway. A member of student government, she served as junior class treasurer. She also belonged to Mu Alpha Theta and National Honor Society.

In her sophomore and junior year Annette played girls' volleyball and lettered the second year.

Annette enjoyed most working on prom in 1976 and felt most rewarded when she was chosen as princess.

As a senior Annette was a Pom Pon and was voted to the Association of Distinguised Young Americans by her fellow Pom Pons.

In the summer of 1976 Annette attended Girls' State. She has been a Job's Daughter since eighth grade. Annette is very involved at church and also enjoys skiing.

Her favorite class was math and she plans to attend college and major in math or computer science.

Cindy Ulrickson loves music and was rewarded most at Gateway by her participation in the music department. She was a member of Concert Band for two and a half years, and a member of orchestra for two years. She held chair position number one on the trumpet in Marching Band, and was nominated to Centennial League Band.

Besides music Cindy played on the volleyball and tennis teams. She was a member of National Honor Society, Spanish Club and a junior escort.

In the community Cindy belongs to a church choir and teaches Sunday school. She was a volunteer candy striper at Colorado General and was active in a music therapy program connected with the Aurora Association for Retarded Citizens.

Her interests are varied and many. She plays trumpet and is studying piano and guitar. She likes horseback riding, sports, especially jogging, writing, photography and flower arranging.

Cindy's future plans include working before attending college to study music therapy or psychology.

The Juniors; Class Of '79!

The juniors, class of '79,' have 557 students. The junior class sponsors are: Mrs. Kathy Miller, Mr. Ray Nordmyer, Ms. Becky VanBuren, and Mr. David Hill.

Pam Souvall is the class president, Terry Palko is the vice-president, Kathy Blatt is the treasurer, and Jenny Pratt is the secretary.

The juniors of '79,' sponsored the Christmas Dance and Prom. In order to raise money they sold suckers and Gold C books throughout the year.

Administration Sets Gateway Goals

Dr. Richard Sharkey, principal of Gateway, keeps on the go running a school of 2300 students. Opening Aurora's third high school five years ago, he instigated the "Gateway concept" as a new beginning in education—an environment which stimulates learning by everyone. "I have never been as excited about a school year as this one," he declares.

Dr. Richard Sharkey, Principal

Mr. Woody Smith, Assistant Principal

Mr. Raymond Norris, Assistant Principal

Mr. Joe Burton, Assistant Principal

Art Courses Encourage Creativity

Ms. Becky VanBuren, new on the art faculty this year, is giving students the background and opportunity for creative expression—and create they have! Even though the finished projects might be the most obvious product of the classes, the skills learned in these classes will become invaluable to the student in later life. Mr. Jake Charlifu, head of the Visual Art Department, teaches painting. Other courses include photography, jewelry, and sculpture.

Mr. Vince Nicoletti

Ms. Rebecca VanBuren

Mr. Dave Litschel

Mr. Jake Charlifu

Business

Business classes at Gateway gave the career minded student help in finding future careers. Through such classes as shorthand, typing, and accounting, students concentrated on sound business skills and on-the-job training. Business classes and clubs aroused young future business leaders and prepared them to face today's complex society and future responsibilities.

English Department Team Teaches

Ms. Bev Phifer

Ms. Mary Ellen Gallagher

Ms. Sonya Pohlman

Ms. Melanie Smith

The English Department under Ms. Marion Burnham is giving the students a chance to develop more than the basic skills of English. All sophomore classes are team taught by groups of three teachers. Course offerings include science fiction, futuristics, debate, speech and mass communications. Ms. Beth Eastman, who also teaches at Aurora Central, and Ms. Jan Vittum joined the staff this year.

Foreign Languages

The Foreign Language Department is headed by Mr. Larry Backes. Ms. Mary Joseph is new this year and Mrs. Beverly Phifer is returning also after a happy marriage. The most popular language this year is Spanish. The German classes are using a new approach and the French classes are using more films.

Ms. Caroline Cabildo

Ms. Anne Wegenast

Ms. Carrie Wilkins

Mr. Larry Backes

Ms. Mary Joseph

Home Economics

Ms. Wendy Bennington

The Home Ec. Department is designed to help prepare the students for family life in the future. The students cook and sew on their own and ask for help when needed. This way they learn responsibility. The Department is taught by four teachers.

Mrs. Martha Klotz

Ms. Marti Wilson

Ms. Sonja Weitzel

Media Center

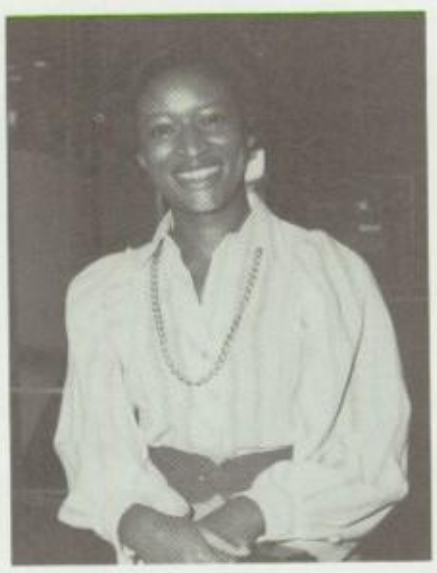
Mr. Dick Cole

Ms. Bonnie Lund



Ms. Irene Morgan

Mr. Dick Cole is in charge of the Audio Visual in the Media Center; he is also chairman of the media center. Mrs. Caviness is head over the print part of the library. They have added walls to the Media Center and no longer is it open so the students can't cut through and disturb the students trying to work. A new classroom has been added also. Librarian says, "this year is quieter and busier than any year."

Ms. Lois Caviness

Special Education

Mr. Jeff Fogler, Ms. Carla McKennett, Mr. Chuck Mills, Mr. Ron Hoover, and Mrs. Kathy Miller are members of the Special Education Department.

Ms. Jewell Lasley heads the Special Education Department which offers the Emotional Behavioral Disorder, Learning Disability and work-study programs. The latter gives students on the job training and school credit at the same time. The S.L.I.C. Program is offered for students with academic achievement significantly below grade level.

Industrial Education

The Industrial Education Department nsists of six teachers and is headed by Mr. mes Hall. The new policy this year allows eshman to be included in most of the classes. dio-visual aids and handouts have updated e program.

Mr. James Cutshall

Mr. James Hall

Music

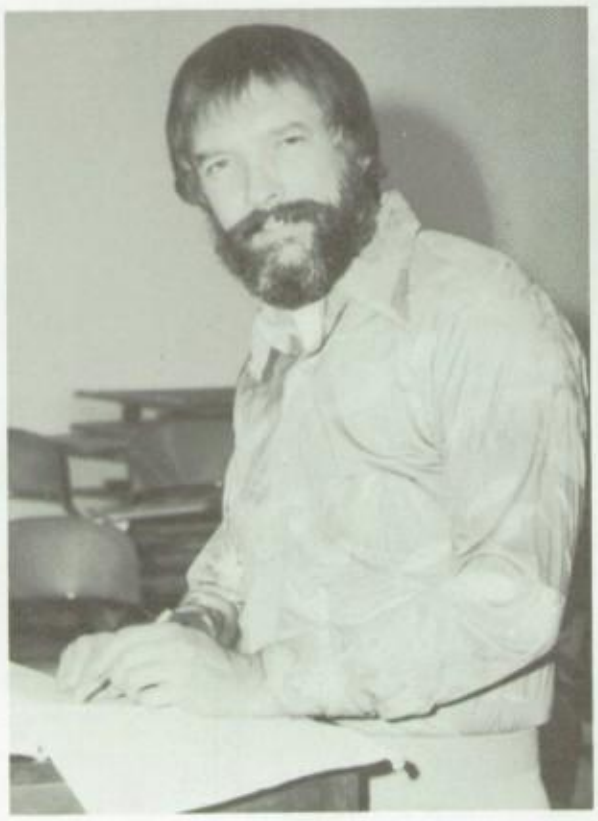
The Music Department is headed by Mr. Fred Wheeler. The staff has three members including one new member, Mr. Gary Capra who is teaching band. Some of the classes offered are stage band, marching band, chorus and guitar.



Mr. Fred Wheeler

Mr. Gary Capra

Drivers Ed.

This year Drivers Ed. has had a lot more students than it can handle so the teaching staff is putting them on the driving range earlier. The head of the department is Mr. James Harter.

Mr. Jim Harter

Counselors

Mr. Al Lambrecht

Ms. Sally DeGarmo

Mr. Ray Willett

Seven Gateway counselors, headed by Mr. Alfred Lambrecht, help students with personal problems, school scheduling, course selection and Vo-Tech or college selection. Two new counselors joined the staff this year, Mr. Dan Dillion and Mr. Greg Hannah. The Counselor's corner is a new way of communicating with counselors through a box located in the office. Group Guidance is an opportunity for several students to discuss similiar problems together, each serving as a resource for the other under the direction of a counselor.

Mr. Dan Dillon

Mr. Victor Zaragoza

Mr. Carl Cordova

Mr. Greg Hannah

Office Personnel

Gateway has a total of nine office workers. Ms. Mary Sloan and Ms. Beverly Limes takes care of attendance along with Ms. Janine Hultquist, who is also Mr. Woody Smith's secretary. Ms. Kathy Wendler and Ms. Cindy Heil take care of the records office. Bookkeeping is headed by Ms. Sue Ford. Ms. Marge Wortham is Dr. Richard Sharkey's secretary. Ms. Lila Wolf does errands for the counselors as their secretary. Ms. Wanda Brynoff aids assistant principals Mr. Raymond Norris and Mr. Joe Burton.

In Memoriam

Mike Markos, a transfer student from Englewood, died on December 23, 1977. Riding his new motocross bike on Chambers Road, he was struck by a truck. He and a friend were returning from the Aurora Mall after Christmas shopping for his family.

Mike loved motorcycling and motocross. He was an avid water skiier since the age of eight. He enjoyed all his classes at Gateway, especially sculpture.

A Prayer

April wakes the roots
And pain fades
Like memories of snow.
Only time rounds
Death's cold edge;
Years will melt
The ache.

But today all the sky
Is gripped in white.
Cries for a friend,
A son, blend with
Calls of geese rushing
Swift as prayer
Above this brutal storm.

Mary Ellen Gallagher

Dedication

The 1978 Olympiad is dedicated to Mr. Dorwin Peterson Gateway's talented, active drama teacher. From Canton, Illinois, he has been involved in drama since high school. After graduation Peterson moved to Iowa where he performed with the Peoria Players and the Corn Stock Theatre. FINCH, HOW TO SUCCEED IN BUSINESS, and OKLAHOMA were some of the shows he appeared in.

Peterson earned his B. A. in English at the University of Iowa, where drama continued to be an important part of his life. Among the university shows he performed in were YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU, RICHARD III, and the FANTASTICS.

From Iowa Peterson went to Santa Barbara, California, where he taught high school for three years. He worked professionally in TAILSPINNERS, a children's theatre troupe in residence at Lobero Theatre. At the Santa Barbara Performing Arts Center he performed with Eva Marie Saint in a stage comeback directed by Ms. Saint's husband, Jeff Hayden.

Peterson returned to the University of Iowa and earned his M. A. in theatre. He taught high school in Davenport, Iowa before attending Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge.

In the summer of 1973 Peterson came to Denver. At Vail he worked with Dr. Edwin Levy of Denver University doing melodramas. He liked Colorado and returned to teach. In Denver his first dramatic accomplishment was in the role of Proteus in TWO GENTLEMEN OF VERONA — a musical version of the Shakespearean comedy. He began working with the Illinois Talent Agency doing commercials, industrial films, and voice overs.

In the Denver area he was a substitute for three months before teaching at North Junior High School. He came to Gateway in 1975 and taught English for a year, before taking over the drama department. He directed CHARLEY'S AUNT, YOU'RE A GOOD MAN CHARLIE BROWN, and OKLAHOMA in 1976-77. His 1977-78 productions included MIRACLE WORKER, A STORY THEATRE, and BYE BYE BIRDIE. One future play he hopes to direct is DRACULA.

Peterson says of Gateway, "I like the students. They're friendly, cooperative and give so much."

Skiing and fishing are his favorite pasttimes. He likes Colorado and plans to stay.

HIGH FLIGHT

John Gillespie Magee, Jr.

Oh, I have slipped the surly bonds of earth,

And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings;

Sunward I've climbed and joined the tumbling mirth

Of sun-split clouds - and done a hundred things

You have not dreamed of - wheeled and soared and swung

High in the sunlit silence. Hov'ring there

I've chased the shouting wind along and flung

My eager craft through footless halls of air.

Up, up the long delirious burning blue

I've topped the wind-swept heights with easy grace,

Where never lark, or even eagle, flew

And, while with silent, lifting mind I've trod

The high untrespassed sanctity of space,

Put out my hand, and touched the face of God.

Say.
Your pretty
Cool but it's to
Bad your not a Junior
Cause we rule the world
Now So look out. If you don't Goof around to much you could
Grow up to be a junior too some day
Don't do anything I wouldn't do (don't get caught)

John Hallett

Jay, didn't have anything to say so I just sign my name

Jay,
It has been strange yet fun in English.

Cheryl Darrah

P.S. Remember section 8 !!!!!
